To Mrs. Maria (Weston) Chapman No.75

«Bolton, England» The writer has forwarded, through Rebecca Whitelegge of Manchester, the subscription from Bolton to the Boston Anti-Slavery fund. Regrets that they were not able to do much in Manchester this year. Requests more than one copy of the paper containing a report of the annual meeting and the list of subscribers. Bolton has done pretty well, considering the many adverse opinions to be met with respecting the Anti-Slavery movement. Sarah P. Remond, lecturing at Bolton "gave great satisfaction." The writer became acquainted with her, as she spent a night "under our humble roof."

«Portsmouth, N.H.» The writer says his "responsibility for the (Christian) Register is necessarily limited..." He and Rev. John H. Morison agreed that an article sent by Rev. May ought to be suppressed because it put Rev. May in a "worse position than he occupied before." The article referred to an issue of the Register which appeared in two versions, one of which omitted an article by Rev. John Parkman. The writer and Rev. Morison both deny the truth of Rev. May's charges, but do not explain the absence of the Parkman article from one of the two versions of the Register.

To Doctor Percival, Machester. (Dr.Thomas Percival ?)

[Aberdeen.] Has received his letter and the printed Resolutions respecting the abolition of the slave trade. Has endeavored to rouse the people in all his lectures on this subject. Two years ago, he wrote a treatise on the subject and delayed printing it only to become more certain of the facts. Outlines the work and expresses his willingness to publish it. Will send it first to the Bishop of London for approval and will then have it forwarded to Percival. Fears that the publication of it in the next session of the Legislature might be thought presumptuous, and so hopes that it may be published during the present session. 11 Dec.

To Mrs. Maria (Weston) Chapman

«Andover, Mass.» The writer approves of the addressee's suggestion that the Abolitionists pass a resolution expressing sympathy with the movement of English Abolitionists to do away with oppression in British India. The writer considers Charles T. Torrey an object of pity, and is satisfied that only an extract of Torrey's letter to him was published in the Liberator. The published extract from the writer's letter bore internal evidence that he had received such a letter (Torrey's), "for that extract was written on purpose to ascertain more fully his treacherous movements." Encloses a statement from the Rev. Daniel H. Babcock.
